

Get to Know Reflect

Get ready for a successful school year!

Join our Back to School online session for Reflect to start the new academic year with confidence.

Aimed at teachers new to Reflect, in this webinar we'll take an in-depth look at the series and explore how its student-centred approach combines engaging real-world content with explicit instruction in academic language, critical thinking, and communication skills. We'll unpack the course design and introduce the range of print and digital resources that facilitate planning, teaching and assessment for teachers.

Whether you're new to the series or looking to make the most of its features, you'll leave with the confidence to deliver lessons that prepare students for academic, professional, and personal success.

Date: Tuesday, 22nd September
