

Get to Know Our World, Second Edition

Get ready for a successful school year!

Join our Back to School online session for Our World, Second Edition to start the new academic year with confidence.

In this webinar, we'll discover how Our World, Second Edition combines authentic National Geographic content with interactive language learning to build confident, curious young learners.

We'll explore the course's balanced approach to vocabulary, grammar, phonics, and the four skills, as well as its strong focus on communication, global citizenship, and 21st-century skills. Along the way, we'll share classroom ideas and introduce the wide range of teacher resources available to support lesson planning, differentiation, and assessment.

By the end of the session, you'll be ready to make the most of Our World, Second Edition and create meaningful learning experiences that inspire children to use English with confidence while developing a greater understanding of the world they live in.

Date: Tuesday, 8th September
Time: 3pm BST
