

Get to Know New Close-up

Get ready for a successful school year!

Join our Back to School online session for New Close-up to start the new academic year with confidence.

In this webinar, we'll explore the key features of New Close-up, including its engaging National Geographic content, carefully scaffolded language development, strong focus on exam success and communicative competence as well as its focus on social and emotional learning (SEL).

We'll look at how the course combines real world content with systematic vocabulary, grammar, and skills work to build students' confidence and prepare them for the classroom, exams and the real-world.

By the end of the session, you'll have a clear understanding of how New Close-up is structured and feel confident using its rich resources to deliver engaging, effective lessons that help learners achieve their language goals.

Date: Wednesday, 16th September
